B- Reading Comprehension (16 marks)

16

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Seeing birds, insects and many kinds of animals every day is not something strange. But in some countries you may see big animals also. Big animals usually come into cities to find food.

In South Africa baboons –large monkeys - come into the cities when they are hungry. They go into gardens and eat fruit from trees. They even go into houses and take food from cupboards and fridges! Baboons are strong animals and they can scare people by showing their big teeth. But the city can be dangerous for baboons too. Sometimes, cars and buses kill baboons in accidents. Human food is very bad for the baboons' teeth because it has a lot of sugar.

One night in December 2011, a bear came into a city in Canada. It walked through the city streets past houses, shops and offices. Then, it found some food in bins outside a restaurant and started eating. In the morning, someone saw the bear and called the police. The police came and took it to a zoo outside the city. Luckily, the bear became safe there.
