◆Bernenstein 's injury اصابة بيرنستين One of Duke's men shot Bernenstein, who was one of Rassendyll's men, in his arm while he was walking in the woods and saw them watching the Tarlenheim's house.

◆Detchard's injury اصابة ديتشارد Detchard was shot by Rassendyll while he was escaping from the summer house.

◆Rupert's injury اصابة روبرت Rassendyll cut his cheek when he was trying to escape from the castle.

◆Johann's injury اصابة يوهان Rupert tried to stick him with his sword in Antoinette's room but he didn't die.

The killed persons, القتلى1 - Josef

Michael's men killed him in the hunting lodge when they came to kidnap the king.

2 - Lauengram and Krafstein were both killed by Rassendyll's men, although the fight had cost them three of our own men. That happened when they went to the castle for the first time to make sure that the king was alive.

3 - Three of Rassendyll's men were killed by Michael's men in their fight in the forest of Zenda.

4 -Max Holf : Rassendyll stabbed to death when he was sleeping in the boat guarding the pipe of the king's prison .

5 - Duke Michael: Rupert killed Michael during their fight in Antoinette 's room in the mansion when Rupert attacked her accusing her of helping Rassendyll but Michael defended her.

6- De Gautet: he appeared in front of Rassendyll outside the castle waiting to save the real king, so Rassendyll struck him with his sword and he fell to the ground. Quickly Rassendyll took three keys from his clothes.

7- Bersonin : Rassendyll struck him with his sword in the first room of the king's prison.

8 - Detichard : when Rassendyll opened the king's prison, he expected to see the King had already been killed, but Detchard was held by the King's doctor. The doctor was too weak to hold Detchard for long so Detchard broke free and killed the doctor with his sword.

-Detchard turned to Rassendyll and began to fight. He was a much better swordsman than Rassendyll and knew all the tricks: he smiled when he cut him on the arm. The king helped Rassendyll by pushing the legs of a chair into Detchard's body.

-With the legs of the chair against him, Detchard found it hard to stand up. This made him angry, and he struck the King hard with his sword, but as he did so, he fell over the doctor's body. It was easy for Rassendyll to kill him as he lay on the floor.

The plans الخططRassendyll

1 - Attending the coronation : حضور حفل التتويج

To attend the coronation of King Rudolf the Fifth and he told his family He was going to the Alps to write a book about social problems in the country.

2-Gainnig popularity: اكتساب شعبية

- His plan was to make himself as popular as he could, and say nothing bad about Michael to stop the poorer people of Strelsau from thinking badly about him. Then, if there were a fight, perhaps people would not want to follow Michael.
- He decided to visit the poor part again.
- He hoped to have the support of the Princess.

3-Rescuing the king : انتقاذ الملك

- Sapt would take some men to the front door of the mansion. When Johann opened the door, they would quickly enter and tie up the servants if they did not want to help the King. At the same time Madame de Mauban would cry out for help from her room. The Duke would come to see what was happening, and they could kill him. Then there would only be two men left guarding the King, so they would need to move quickly before they hurt the King.

Sapt

1-The Coronation

- He planned to replace the poisoned king with Rassendyll to prevent Duke Michael from taking the crown.

2-After kidnapping the king

- He planned to make Michael worried more by asking Rassendyll to complete the game and return to Strelsau

71- "You know, I think we can do this".

72- "Josef will let her out later, after Michael is gone. But I'm sure, when they find that the king is not here, Michael will realise we know about his plan."

73- "You must come and look at this".

74- "And if we dress you in different clothes, no one will know "

75- "You know, I think we can do this".

76- "She's locked in the cellar with the king".

Fritz to Sapt and Rassendyll

77- "We must tell everyone what's happened and make the most of it".

78- "We must tell the people of Ruritania that he is ill".

79- Fritz to the king

80- "we ride to Zenda and return with a guard of soldiers to take the king to station".

81- "The Colonel and I have to leave here at six tomorrow morning".

82- "I don't think it would be a good idea for Mr. Rassendyll to visit Strelsau now".

Fritz to Sapt

84- " there is no doctor for fifteen kilometers and even a thousand doctors won' t make him better today,"

Sapt to Rassendyll and fritz

85- " Tonight we sleep in the palace , "

86- "As soon as we are alone in the king's bedroom, you and I Will leave and come back here on our horse."

87- Fritz can stay and guard the king's bedroom in the Palace, and I will tell Josef to get the king ready for the journey back."

88- The king will then return to the palace with me in the dark."

89- Meanwhile. You will ride as fast as you can to the border and try to leave the country before it's light. Do we all agree on this plane?"

90- "We won't wait for Michael's guards but leave for Strelsau at once."

91- "After we've moved the king. I'll speak to her."

Sapt to the king

92- "but sir, " "I don't think it would be a good idea for Mr. Rassendyll to visit Strelsau now"

93- "Remember. Sir that we have an early start tomorrow."

94- "God save both kings." (to himself)

Sapt to fritz

95- "Josef will say the hunting lodge is empty." this our only chance."

96- "No, nothing's safe everywhere, but we must do our best."

The king to Rassendyll

97- "What would my brother Michael think if he saw us two together!"

98- "Come, then, Cousin Rudolf. I don't have a house here, but I'm staying in the place my brother

Michael uses for hunting. It's not the palace that I'm used to, but it will do for a few days.

99- "But Rudolf, forget these two men! We don't need to get up so early, so eat some more, cousin!"

100- "It's no good to meet you cousin! You must forgive me if I seemed surprised"

101- "Please, first you must eat with me tonight. You don't meet a new cousin every day."

The King to Fritz

102- "It's very good of my brother to let me use his guards."

103- "Who is this gentleman?"

The King to Josef

104- "Is dinner ready yet, Josef?"

The king to himself

105- "Well done, Michael! He knows me well!"

The king to Sapt and Rassendyll

106- "We can still eat well." and good food is more important than sleep !

107- Now, Mr. Rassendyll, What's your first name?"

The king to Sapt and Fritz

108- "What would my brother Michael think if he saw us two together?"

Josef to the King

109- "The Duke said I was to give you this at the end of your metal."

Chapter (3)Rudolf Rassendyll to Sapt

110- "Who can I get a permit from?"

111- "Look, I can pretend to be the king because I look like him,"

112- "That doesn't mean I can write like him too!"

"What do you think the Duke knows about our plan?"

114- "Get off? But they'll catch us!"

115- "Do you want to see who they are?"

116- "Where are Josef and the King?"

117- "No, the body's Josef. The King's not there."

118- "That's why they said that all's well. But when did they find out?"

119- "What did he think when he met me, then? He knew I was not the real king!"

120- "We must get back and collect every soldier in Strelsau. Michael will have to be caught before the king is killed."

121- "How is that possible if we don't know where he is?"

122- "Do you mean you want me to be the king again?"

123- "Look, I can pretend to be the King because I look like him but that doesn't mean I can write like him too."

124- "So they found the old women?"

125- "It's not good news. I'm afraid he's dead."

126- "Do you want to see who they are?"

Rassendyll

127- "I don't need them or you. You can wait here until I've continued through the old town alone." (to the Marshal)

128- "I want the people who live here to see that their king trusts them". (to the Marshal)

129- Don't you understand me? Tell your soldiers to go !" (to the Marshal)

130- "Why have we changed our route?" (to the Marshal)

131- "Tell your soldiers to ride ahead of me. I don't need them or you .(to the Marshal)

132- "I think I want to change now that I'm King." (to the Princess)

133- "I hope I'll make a good King." (to the Princess)

134- "Well, in a few hours, I'll become Rudolf Rassendyll once more," remembering that I would be king only until that night. (to Fritz)

Sapt to Rassendyll

135- "Only if you stay alive as long as that," "Michael's had news from Zenda and he's almost certainly planning something."

136- "The king of course," "putting on a table a form for me to sign and paper with the king's signature for me to copy".

137- "Oh, it's not hard to copy."

138- "Now, remember our plan. I'll go with you, Rassendyll."

139- "Here, put on this big coat and hat," "Now, are you ready to go?"

140- "In the old king's time, I knew all about this secret passage."

141- "Listen, I can hear something."

142- "We're lucky that the wind's blowing us so we can hear them. Come on!"

143- "To the right's our road, to the left's the castle. Now, get off your horse."

144- "Get off your horse!"

"So, he's had news that all is well."

146- "Look there! "That's what I used to tie up the woman. Fasten the horses and let's see what's happened."

147- "I realised that when I saw the handkerchiefs."

148- "So, they've got the King!"

149- "Michael must've known all day".

150- "It doesn't matter what he thought then," "What matters is what he thinks now!"

151- "Wait, "We need to think. It must've been the old woman who told them what had happened somehow."

152- "I understand now. They came here to kidnap the king and they found him in that room in the cellar. If we hadn't escaped to Strelsau, we would've been killed."

153- "I have no idea," But you could see at the coronation that Duke Michael's really worried. Let's think about how we can worry him a bit more."

154- "We'll go back to Strelsau," "The king will be back in the capital again tomorrow!"

155- "We'll go back to Strelsau and continue with the game we started. You've done a good job until now, so why not continue?"

156- "So, he's had news that all is well."

157- "Get off? But they'll catch us!"

158- "Take your gun. You may need to get through the city gates."

159- "We'll go back to Strelsau. The King will be back in the capital again tomorrow!"

160- "Michael must have known all day."

161- "I wish I knew. It's a real puzzle."

162- "You must leave the country as soon as you can."

163- "Here, put on this big coat and hat. Now are you ready to go?"

Sapt

164- "You will tell everyone that the king's gone to bed and that he's not to be woken by anybody until nine o'clock tomorrow morning." (to Fritz)

165- "Michael may try to visit, but you mustn't let him in." (to Fritz)

166- "Here's a form from the King himself. You can show it to your father when he returns." (to the girl at the city gate)

167- "Your father should have stayed here." (to the gatekeeper's girl)

Fritz to Rassendyll

168- "That was a day to remember!" "I think I'd like to be king for a day."

169- "But Rassendyll, you mustn't try too hard. I'm not sure it was a good idea to ride alone through the old town."

170- "Duke Michael won't like it if you become too popular with his people, you know."

The Princess to Rassendyll

171- "Perhaps you already have. I heard that you rode through the old town alone," "That surprised me. The people there must really have appreciated what you did."

172- "Do you know Rudolf, you look different today?"

"If all's well, why go there? And if all isn't well, I fear there'll be a trap."

- 174- "I think we should go to the castle where we can learn the truth."
 175- But he told me not to open the gate for anyone." (The gatekeeper's girl to Sapt)
 176- "Why not the hunting lodges?" (Michael to Max)
 177- "When's the wedding?" (One of the poor people to King' Rassendyll)
 178- "I'm surprised that he's on his own, but he's taller than I thought."
 (One of the poor people to another)

Chapter 4

Sapt to Rassendyll

- 179- "Yes, but they can't say anything," "They cannot say. This isn't the real King because we've kidnapped him and killed his servant." Will they say that?"
 180- "If the real King's already dead, then you shall stay King? But I think the King's still alive, and I don't think they'll do anything to him if you're in the capital. They'd known that you would stay King if they killed him!"
 181- "Good man!" "I'll go and get the horses."
 182- "Very well." "As a soldier, I've had a lot of fights like this. I'll show you what to do."
 183- "Good!" "That will give Michael something to worry about."
 184- "Freyler's a good servant, but sometimes it's best not to trust even the best of men."
 185- "Even Fritz thinks you're the real King!" "I think we can do this."
 186- "Quick! Go into the bedroom, take your hat and boots off and climb into bed. Cover yourself up so people think you're a sleep."
 187- "I wish they were." "Because then there'd only be four and not six of them."
 188- "Of course it's a risk, but we must have a King in Strelsau."
 189- "We've got them! They can't say anything without showing their guilt."
 190- "Well done! That was very brave. Do you think they saw who you were?"
 191- "Listen, if you're a man, you can save the King. Go back and pretend to be him."
 192- "Let's go to Strelsau. We'll be caught if we stay here."
 193- "They'll do whatever Michael asks them to do."

Rassendyll to Sapt

- 194- "But the Duke knows where the real King is, and all his men know!"
 195- "Sapt, surely someone in Strelsau will realise I'm not the real King," "The Princess has already said she thinks the King's changed. She'll certainly realise."
 196- "What if the King's already dead?"
 197- We should make sure that some of those evil men join Josef."
 198- "You're mad! The plan's too dangerous."
 199- "If people find out who I am. I'll fight with the Duke."
 200- "Yes, one of the men said. It's the king before I pushed him off his horse."
 "My King, you're safe! I'm so pleased."
 202- "Oh! Rassendyll?" "But what's happened to your hand? Are you hurt?"
 203- "What is it? Where's the real King?"
 204- "Unfortunately I fear you'll soon be meeting them."
 205- "They're six special soldiers who Michael keeps in his house at all times. They're completely loyal to him. Three are from Ruritania; one is Belgian, one French, and one's from your country."
 206- "So no one can do anything! It's a stalemate!"
 207- "Rest? No! We mustn't waste any time! Shouldn't we plan how to attack Michael?"

Rassendyll to Fritz

- 208- "And we cannot accuse him in public without admitting that I'm not the real King."
 209- "Excuse me, but who are the Six Men?"
 210- "Would they try to kill me?"
 211- "We don't think so. But Duke Michael's holding him prisoner."

Rassendyll to Sapt and Fritz

- 212- "So they were not the men we saw at the hunting lodge?"

Sapt to Fritz

- 213- "Be quiet, Fritz!" "Don't speak so loudly! People will hear us."
 214- "Let's take things slowly."
 215- "We aren't going to do anything dangerous."

- 216- "He won't," "If he kills the King, he knows that Rassendyll will stay as King instead . And he cannot accuse Rassendyll of anything because then people will know that he's kidnapped the King."
 217- "Only half? Then that means the other half are guarding the King."
 218- "Without a doubt. Which three are here in Strelsau, Fritz?"
 219- "It's nothing serious. What's more important is what we have to tell you."

Fritz to Sapt

- 220- "Tell me, is the King dead?"
 221- "Yes. You're right," said Fritz. "So that means the King must be alive."
 222- "If the king were dead, all the six men would be here with the Duke."

Rassendyll to the Princess

- 223- "You need not call me 'sir.' I told her, "For after all, we are still cousins."
 224- "My brother's back in the city. I hear. He went away for a while, didn't he?"
 225- "I'd like him to be near me because he's my half-brother. We're family" "We need to help and support each other. Unfortunately, I've heard he can't stay in Strelsau for very long."
 226- "But of course he can come in."
 227- "Not from this," "but if I gave him the chance to bite again it would be different."
 "Send her my thanks and tell her that I've never better in my life."
 229- "That's good. The nearer he is to me, the better."

The Princess to Rassendyll

- 230- "Do you want him to be near you so that you know what he's doing?"
 231- "It's him" "It's the Duke of Strelsau! He's coming here now."
 232- "You do know that Michael will be very angry. Is that a good idea?"
 233- "Is there any danger from the bite?"
 234- "Did you kill the animal?"
 235- "How funny you are? You know that no one can enter without your permission."
 236- "You have completely changed since you became King, sir."
 237- "You haven't asked him to come in. He's been waiting outside the room for a long time."
 238- "I'm proud to do so, Rudolf, but I think your face has changed."

Rassendyll to Michael

- 239- "Yes, an animal bit me," "It'll be fine."
 240- "He'll be knocked on the head."
 241- "I was never very good at remembering all the rules."
 242- "I'm so sorry. I didn't know you were waiting, otherwise I'd have asked you in sooner."

Michael to Rassendyll

- 243- "You've hurt your hand."
 244- "But he might bite again."
 245- "Three of my friends would very much like to meet you. Sir. They're waiting outside."
 246- "These gentlemen are the most loyal and honest of the king's servants, and are my great friends."

Sapt of Freyler

- 247- "Yes, Freyler, all is well."
 248- "Now remember, say nothing about this. All young men like to ride their horses now and then, so why not the King?"
 249- "The King's had a good long sleep." (Sapt to the Princess's servant)

Chapter (5)Sapt to Rassendyll

- 250- "From the writing, I think it's from a woman. I also have some important news."
 251- "We asked where the rest of the six men were, and found out that they are all there at the castle."

"Almost certainly. The three men are always at the castle, and people say the drawbridge is nearly always kept up. That is not normal. No one goes to the building without the permission of

Rupert or Michael

- 253- "De Gautet, Bersonion and Detchard are in Strelsau, and any one of them could catch you easily," "So, what's that letter?"
 254- "Yes, and Michael can also write a very good letter."

- 255- "I've heard that she came to Ruritania with her servants as a guest of Michael," "People say she had a great argument with Michael. And now she's staying somewhere in Strelsau."
- 256- "Some interesting things have been happening this morning."
- 257- "The police report says that the Duke of Strelsau left the capital by the road to Zenda. An hour later, he was followed by De Gautet, Bersonin and Detchard, who had a bandage around his arm."
- 258- "Finally, listen to this: the people of the capital are not happy that the King has yet to marry the Princess. Some people say that if they do not marry soon, it would be better if the Princess married the Duke of Strelsau. However, the King is having a ball tonight for the Princess."
- 259- "Listen," "You must ask the Princess to marry you tonight."
- 260- "We can't wait any longer," "We must go to Zenda and rescue the King."
- 261- "Perhaps she would be useful if she had information about Michael. However, I believe that Michael wrote that letter."
- 262- "We now know that the King's at the Castle of Zenda."
- 263- "It would be very useful for Michael if you disappeared. And if you disappear, the game's over."
- 264- "I don't believe this woman and you're mad to go!"
- 265- "I'll wait for you here, outside the gate. Good luck."
- 266- "You'll probably stay there forever if you do."
- 267- "Because I've ordered them to follow you."
- 268- "I apologize, but there's some who wants to see you, sir."

Rassendyll to Sapt

- 269- "If not today, then soon. I must go there."
- 270- "Tell me, Sapt, why is it that wherever I go in the capital, I'm followed by six people?"
- 271- "I don't need such help, I can look after myself."
- 272- "So she could be useful to us."
- 273- "So do I, but I'm not certain." "I'll go to the house tonight."
- 274- "You can come too, but you must wait outside the gate when I go in alone."
- 275- "Either I go to the house, or I go back to England. We don't have much time."
- 276- "Every day we leave the King imprisoned there's more danger. We must move quickly."
- 277- "Sapt! It's me, let's go."
- 278- "Do you realise, that everyone really thinks I'm the King, even the Princess? I could even arrange for the Duke and the real King to be killed."
- 279- "Do you think the King's definitely there?"
- 280- "I believe this woman, and I will go."
- 281- "I have a fine story to tell you about a table!"
- 282- "I can't do that. It wouldn't be fair to the Princess."
- "It isn't fair for the people of Ruritania and it isn't fair for the Princess, either."

Antoinette to Rassendyll

- 284- "We have little time," "Listen! I know who you are and I know you're not the King. You're Mr. Rassendyll."
- 285- "I wrote that letter to you at the Duke's orders. In twenty minutes, three men will be here to kill you."
- 286- "You have guards following you, don't you? Well Michael's men are following them. If you're alone, then you'll die."
- 287- "Now go quietly this way past the summer house for about a hundred metres. There you'll find a ladder against the wall. Climb it and run as fast as you can."
- 288- "I also have a game to play. I'll tell the Duke's men that you never came. If the Duke doesn't find out what I've done, we may meet again."
- 289- "Yes, you must leave here before they arrive, so listen carefully! The plan is to kill you and to take your body into the old town. It'll be found and Michael will arrest Colonel Sapt and Captain Fritz von Tarlenheim for murdering you. Then a messenger will be sent to Zenda and the real King will be murdered too."
- 290- "The Duke will then become King. Do you understand?"
- 291- "Yes, I do know. Inside the castle there's a door on the right, and behind that-but listen!"

- 292- "They're here! It's too late for you to escape!"
 293- "I also have a game to play. I'll tell the Duke's men that you never came. If the Duke doesn't find out what I've done, we may meet again."
 294- "Listen! I know who you are and I know you are not the King."
 295- "I don't like to see people being killed. Now go. But remember you're never safe in this city."

Rassendyll to Antoinette

- 296- "Oh, yes, I understand. It's a clever plan. But why are you helping me?"
 297- "Or I'll kill them! I suppose they're three of the Duke's six men?"
 298- "Thank you. You've helped the King tonight," "But before I go, tell me something. Do you know where he is in the castle?"
 299- "But before I go, tell me something. Do you know where he is in the castle?"

The Princess to Rassendyll

- 300- "You've been King for a few weeks now," "Everyone says you've done a very good job. I'm very pleased for you."
 301- "Why does it say 'the leader' and not 'the King'?"
 302- "So you don't mind making Michael angry?"
 303- "Be careful, won't you?"
 304- "I can't say. But think what your life means to the people of Ruritania."
 305- "But you always knew that you would become King. How could you think that was someone else's job?"

Rassendyll to the Princess

- 306- "You know, someone once said to me, 'a person who has a position in society has responsibilities.' Recently I've realized how true this is."
 307- "I'll order guards to watch you."
 308- "A friend of mine. Today you must say you're ill so you can't go to Zenda."
 309- "There's something you should know. I'm not really"
 310- "You must do as the letter says. I'll order guards to watch you."
 311- "No, when I was younger. I didn't think I needed to worry about society. I thought that was someone else's job."
 312- "I don't mind anything if you're safe."

Detchard to Rassendyll

- 313- "Our names are not important. We can offer you a safe journey to the border and fifty thousand English pounds."
 314- "Why don't you open the door yourself?"

Rassendyll to Detchard

- 315- "Very well, but it opens outwards," I explained. "You'll need to stop back or the door will hit you."

Rassendyll to Michael's men

- 316- "Stand outside and talk." "I won't let you in."
 317- "Gentleman, "I'd like to accept your kind offer. "Perhaps you can open the door for me."
 318- "That sounds a generous offer. Give me a minute to think."

Fritz to Rassendyll

- 319- "Oh, it has all been prepared," "by me."
 One of Michael's men to Rassendyll
 320- "We want to make you an offer. Will you let us in?"

Rassendyll the Marshal

- 321- "Every evening. I'll send you a message. If you don't get a message for three days, you have the authority to say that you are now the head of Strelsau."
 322- "You must then ask the Duke to allow you to see the King. If he doesn't allow you to see the King in twenty-four hours, you must say that the King's dead."
 323- "Then you must tell the people of Ruritania who their new ruler will be. You do know who that will be?"

Rassendyll to Fritz and Sapt

- 324- "I don't know anything about a ball."

Chapter (6)Rassendyll to the Marshal

325- "As you know, his mother was not royal and he can only legally become King if he marries the Princess."

326- "You must promise that you'll protect Princess Flavia from the Duke."

327- "Now I'll write down what I've just said. But my finger still hurts."

The Marshal to Rassendyll

328- "The Princess will be safe with me."

329- "The writing's a little different from your usual. I hope people know it's a real order from the King."

Rassendyll the Princess

330- "The thing I hunt is a very big animal." I explained. "Because I'll be hunting Michael."

331- "If I don't come back, you must become Queen for me."

332- "Thank you. Let us hope that it's not necessary."

The Princess to Rassendyll

333- "I don't really know what's going on, but I'll do whatever is right for Ruritania. If that means becoming the Queen, then so be it."

334- "So you'd prefer to hunt animals than do your duties in the capital?"

Rassendyll to Rupert

335- And what of your friends De Gautet, Bersonin and Detchard? I heard that Detchard was injured?"

336- "Good. Perhaps you would like to stay and eat with us?"

337- "Of course you do," "Thank you for coming. I look forward to seeing you all again."

338- "But you can't say that in public, can you? Because then people would know you've kidnapped the real King. You know the game's not finished yet, and until it is, I will choose my own name," "So what is your message?"

339- "If you do not know how to address the King, my brother must find another messenger."

340- "Tell the Duke that I refuse his generous offer. How's his prisoner, by the way?"

341- "I'm sorry to hear this. I hope my brother feels better soon."

342- "Good, now go from here, while you can."

"You needn't worry, Detchard will be fine."

344- "The Duke offers you more than I would. He offers you a safe journey to the border and a million gold pieces."

345- "I have a message for you, Rassendyll."

346- "You're very kind but unfortunately we have important duties and need to get back to the castle."

347- "Why do you continue to pretend? We all know who you are."

Sapt to Rassendyll

348- "That Rupert's the worst criminal of them all!"

349- "It's a very clever plan," "It means that if we attack the castle quietly and secretly, or openly with a great army, the King will still be dead before we can save him."

350- "It seems that it's dangerous to ride in this area unless you're in a large group."

351- "One of our men, Bernenstein, went out alone in the woods today. He saw three men in the trees and one shot him."

352- "I think that this time next year, you'll still be King."

353- "He's upstairs in bed with a bullet in his arm. The next bullet could be for you."

Rassendyll to Sapt

354- "One is if we have a miracle, and the other is if one of the Duke's men betrays him."

355- "There are two ways in which the King can come out of Zenda alive."

Rassendyll to Fritz

356- "Of Course. Just do as I say and everything will be fine."

Fritz to Rassendyll

357- "And the good news is that your plan has worked, for the girl's brought Johann to the house. He's downstairs right now, and the strange thing is that I think Johann's happy to be here," "He seems to know that if Michael's plan is successful, he'll be in trouble because he knows too much."

358- "Won't they recognize you, then?"

359- "The doctor says your arm will soon be better."

The innkeeper's daughter to Rassendyll

360- I told my mother you weren't really an Englishman and that you were the King! I'm sorry if we said anything bad when you stayed with us."

361- "You won't hurt him, will you, sir?"

362- "You're the King! I remember you when you stayed with us."

363- "He never comes here anymore. He works at the castle now."

Rassendyll to the innkeeper's daughter

364- "But you're still friends and you must ask to see him," "Tell him to meet you tomorrow night at ten o'clock, then bring him to our house. And tell no one that you've seen the King. Do you understand?"

365- "I'll forgive you if you promise to help us."

Johann to Rassendyll

366- "They have another plan." "If the castle's attacked by a large group of soldiers, they would do the same thing, but one of the six men would take the King's place. So when Michael arrived at the castle, he could say that he was only keeping one of the six men as prisoner because he'd been rude to Antoinette de Mauban. No one would believe that the King was ever there."

367- "Yes, and so does my brother, Max. He helped to put up the pipe to the prison window. It's not easy to sleep at the Castle of Zenda because no one feels safe. Everyone in it is a criminal, except the King."

Rassendyll to Johann

368- "Does the King know about Michael's plan?"

369- "If anyone asks you if there is a prisoner in the castle, you can say there is. But if anyone asks you who the prisoner is, do not answer. We can help you if you keep your promises, otherwise you'll never be safe again."

370- "What if many men attacked the castle?"

371- "You can go back to the castle now."

Chapter (7)

Rassendyll to the Chief of the Police

372- "Yes, I do. I believe she and her servant were guests of Duke Michael."

373- "I believe she and her servants were guests of Duke Michael."

374- "Go back to Strelsau and tell the Ambassador what you know. I'll look into this for you."

375- "Return in two weeks and I'll tell you what I've found."

Rassendyll to Rupert

376- "How's my brother today?"

377- "You don't have to work for my brother."

378- "Would you really work against Michael?"

379- "How's my brother today?"

380- "You're young. Why are you doing this? If you let your prisoner go free, I can help you."

Rupert to Rassendyll

381- "He's well," "He hopes he'll soon be in Strelsau."

382- "Think carefully about my plan."

"That will leave two men alive. You and me. You'll stay as the King, and I'll have a reward."

384- "You may be right. Attack the castle bravely. I'll tell you when."

385- "He's not a good man. He makes me angry. I nearly killed him myself last night."

Johann to Rassendyll

386- "Then, at two o'clock in the morning, open the front door to the mansion. Ask no more questions. Now go."

Rassendyll to Johann

387- "I hear there are new servants at the castle. Do these servants know the King's a prisoner there?"

388- "Good. Tomorrow night, give this letter to Antoinette de Mauban."

- 389- "So if they saw me, they'd think that I was the King?"
 390- "No, they don't know who the prisoner is."
 391- "I'll give you fifty thousand pieces of gold if you do what I ask you tomorrow night."
 392- "Why doesn't my brother kill me now?" (The King to Detchard)
 393- "The Duke doesn't want you to die, not yet anyway. Sleep well!" (Detchard to the King)
 394- "They've got me, Rupert! There are seven of them. Save yourself!"
(one of Michael's men (Krafstein or Lauengram) to Rupert)
 395- "Let's go across before they lift the drawbridge for the night." (Rupert to De Gautet)

Chapter (8)Rupert to Michael

- 396- "Come on, Michael! Let's fight!"
 397- "This woman's been writing secret letters to Rassendyll."

Rupert to Johann

- 398- "That's for you, Johann. I know you're Rassendyll's spy."
 (Rupert to the servants)

- 399- "Dead! That's good. Then I'm your leader now. Put down your weapons and do as I say."

Michael to Rupert

- 400- "She's my guest. It's you who needs to be punished."

Rupert to Rassendyll

- 401- "What did you do at the castle?"
 402- "Do you mean that you got inside the King's prison?"
 403- "And what's happened to the King?"
 "Why didn't you follow my plan? We could have worked together."

Rassendyll to Rupert

- 405- "Get off your horse and fight like a man."
 406- "I make sure that you are the last of the six men."
 407- "He was hurt, but he's alive."

Rassendyll to Fritz

- 408- "Go after him!"
 409- "Is the King safe?"

Fritz to Rassendyll

- 410- "Sir, you don't look well."
 411- "Thanks to you, he is. But you're injured, let me help you."

The Marshal to Sapt

- 412- "This boy says the King's over there behind that tree."

Sapt to the Marshal

- 413- "No, he's in the castle behind me."

Sapt to the Princess

- 414- "Come. It's time you come into the castle, we have much to discuss."
 415- "Then come alone."

The Princess to Sapt

- 416- "What's this game you're playing?"
 417- "He is the King!" cried Flavia. "It's his face! Rudolf, look at me! What's happening?"
 418- "What do you mean it's not the King?"

The King to Sapt and Rassendyll

- 419- "Very well, I'll return to Strelsau alone. People know that the King was injured, so they won't be surmised to see me looking a little different."
 420- "The Princess has asked to see you, too." "She can come in now."

The King to Rassendyll

- 421- "Cousin! My friend! You're injured, too. We are always the same, you and I!"
 422- "I hoped that tomorrow, you'd come with me to Strelsau and tell everyone about the brave things that you've done, but Sapt tells me that this isn't possible."

Rassendyll to the King

- 423- "I'd happily help you again, sir."
 424- "He's right, sir. My work in your country is complete."

425- "Push hard. Push against his legs."

426- "But you've taught me something, Cousin Rudolf. You've shown me what a true King should be."

The princess to Rassendyll

427- "It seems you've ticked me."

428- "You don't need to apologise. I should thank you for all you've done for Ruritania."

429- "It is you! Are you hurt?"

430- "And we'll never forget how you've helped the King."

Rose to Rassendyll

431- "Ruritania. Sir Jacob Borrodaile is to be the British Ambassador in Strelsau."

432- "You could have become an ambassador yourself one day! If you don't go, you'll never be anyone important!"

433- "At least the ambassador has a job for you soon. He now knows which country he'll be sent to."

434- Yes, you look very like the king of Ruritania. But this is an excuse."

435- "But you promised you'd take the job!"

Rassendyll to Rose

436- "I don't think it'd a good idea for me work there."

Rassendyll to the Princess

437- "I would like to apologize to you for this."

438- "I've learned all about duties and responsibilities. It's a lesson I'll never forget."

439- "Forgive me Madame, I'm not the king."

Rassendyll to Rose and Rupert

440- "You're right, but please look at this."

441- "Why doesn't my brother kill me now?" (The real King to Detchard)

442- "Help Michael! It's Rupert Hentzau!" (Antoinette said this to Michael)

443- "The Duke's dead, you've already killed him." (Antoinette to Rupert)

444- "What you say is nonsense. The king's injured in the castle." (Sapt to The little boy)

445- "Please, come and see if you don't believe me." (The little boy to The Marshal)

446- "We mustn't kill him yet or there'll trouble. (Detchard to Bersonin)

447- "No, really, he's here. He fought a man who took my horse." (The little boy to the Marshal)
