¡Hola! I'm Dora! Boots and I are going to blast off in this rocket. We're going to help our alien friends get back home to the Purple Planet. Will you help too? Great!

It's time to board the rocket ship. Will you find our friends Flinky, Inky, Plinky, Dinky, and AI?

Boots and I need to wear special suits in outer space. Will you find space suits for us to wear?

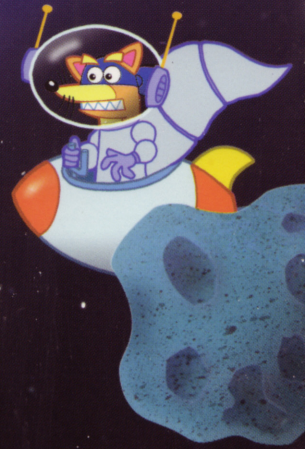

We're almost ready for blastoff! Let's count down together: 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 . . . blastoff!

Wow! Outer space is full of twinkly stars!
We need to find our way through the starry constellations to get to the Purple Planet.

First we have to go past the lion constellation. Then we have to go over the turtle constellation and around the chicken constellation. Will you help us find them?

HERE

We are almost at the Purple Planet. Match the shapes to help us get there.

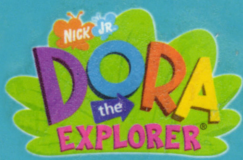

We just need to fly through the stars and planets. Will you help us? Watch out for asteroids!

We made it! Hooray! You helped our alien friends find their way back home to the Purple Planet!

Do you see some things to help us have a party? Thanks for helping!
