Exam Tips

EXAM TIPS:

Throughout this Sample Test, you will find text boxes like this one. Each box has a tip to help you complete each part of the exam.

General Exam Tips:

1. If you feel anxious, take 3 to 4 deep breaths before you start.
2. Focus on your own work.
3. Don't leave any question blank. Even if you don't know the answer, try your best to answer the question. Check that you have done this before you leave the exam room.
4. Your spelling and handwriting are important. Make sure that you are careful when asked to answer in words. If the examiner cannot read what you have written, it will be marked as incorrect.
5. The total test time is 25 minutes.

Part 1

Listen to a presentation about the International Space Station (ISS).

Choose and circle the correct answers. There are TWO correct answers for each question.

Read the instructions carefully. There will be some important information that you need to know. For example, for these questions, you are asked to choose TWO correct answers.

1 What does the speaker say about the International Space Station (ISS)? (2 marks)

- A The first mission had a crew of 16 men and women.
- B The ISS goes around the Earth every 92 minutes.
- C The astronauts do research on the ISS every day.
- D The astronauts only have to repair things inside the ISS.
- E The astronauts must do spacewalks by themselves.

You will be given one minute to read the questions. Read the questions very carefully, as you will only hear the recording twice. You want to be as familiar with the questions as possible before you hear the recording.

2 What does the speaker think about the ISS? (2 marks)

- A That it is similar to his home.
- B That he can do similar research on earth.
- C That he would like to live there to do tests on himself.
- D He would love to live there to know what zero-gravity is like.
- E The work that astronauts do is very important.

Part 2

Remember - if the instructions ask you to choose ONE letter and you write more than one answer, you will receive zero marks for that question.

Listen to the speakers talking about different subjects.
For each speaker (3–9) choose ONE answer (A–J).
There are TWO answers you do not need.
You will hear the recording twice.
There is one EXAMPLE.

EXAMPLE: D

3. Speaker One: _____

4. Speaker Two: _____

5. Speaker Three: _____

6. Speaker Four: _____

7. Speaker Five: _____

8. Speaker Six: _____

9. Speaker Seven: _____

- A They think traditional music can tell us a lot about the past.
- B They have a family member who likes technology.
- C They want to visit a famous place in the desert.
- D ~~They prefer visual learning.~~
- E They think that technology is very useful for learning.
- F They think it is important to learn to play an instrument.
- G They want to visit a famous place in the mountains.
- H They think traditional songs are important for teamwork.
- I They prefer to study using books.
- J They have a relative who is very good at storytelling.

If you miss a question, don't waste time worrying about it because you may miss the next one. Stay calm and move on to the next question.

Part 3

Make sure that you follow the word count in the instructions. If you write more than one word, your answer will be marked as incorrect.

Listen to a man talking on Bellerby University radio.

Complete the gaps with ONE word from the recording.
You will hear the recording twice.

Do not use more than one word.

There is one EXAMPLE.

EXAMPLE: The speaker is talking about the Gibson sports centre.

10. The centre is opposite the lake and next to the central _____.

11. _____ class is on Monday or Tuesday at 5.30pm.

12. Five-a-side football in on _____ at 2pm.

13. Five-a-side football costs _____ pounds.

14. Thursday football games start at _____pm.

15. The _____ pool is next to the main pool.

16. The centre telephone number is _____.

Look through the gaps – which questions need:
a number?
a time?
a day?
a place, name or adjective?

Don't worry if you don't understand everything you hear. Listen out for the key words from the questions and focus on what you need to be listening for to answer the question.
