Reading Skills Check 1 (Level 6)

One of my favourite sports is football. I play it at school sometimes, but it isn't as much fun as being a spectator. Some of my friends say that watching games live in the stadium is best, but frankly, I think that you can see the game better on TV.

Other team sports that I like are volleyball and basketball. They are both really fun to play and basketball is even more interesting to watch than football. The team sport that I recommend the most is volleyball, as it is excellent exercise for your whole body, and you don't really have to be very tall to be good at it.

I would like to try some more unusual sports, like capoeira or paintballing. I would never do something like free climbing, though, as you can get seriously hurt if you fall.

While few people have heard of sports like zorbing or bossaball, some other extreme sports, such as kitesurfing, are becoming more popular and I agree with my friends who say that kitesurfing should become a part of the Olympic Games soon.
