1 Complete the sentences with the words from the text on Coursebook page 204.

Facts about language!

There are about 6,500 languages<sup>(1)</sup> in the world.

Over 2000 languages are known to be endangered<sup>(2)</sup>. This means that they may not exist in the future.

More than 200 languages are now extinct<sup>(3)</sup>. There are no speakers left. Examples of dominant<sup>(4)</sup> or major<sup>(5)</sup> languages are English, Chinese and Arabic.

They are spoken by millions of people around the world.

Examples of rarely<sup>(6)</sup> languages are Nivkh and Toratan.

Regions<sup>(7)</sup> of the world where languages are at risk include Australia and Eastern Siberia.

1 Marco
 we tend to use our arms a lot in Greece! It's a good way to express us!

2 Pete
 we never use our thumbs to say that something is good in Greece!
 It's a very rude gesture for us!

3 Yoshi
 It's important to keep our backs straight in Japan. It means that we respect family and friends!

4 Lin
 we never show the sole of our shoes to other people in Thailand.
 This is because it's not considered clean!
